

Splendor in the Ordinary

I tried to emulate what I thought an ideal family looked like by purchasing recorders. I had the idea from how the family sang together in the Sound of Music.

Children like to be with their parents. Our sons liked to go on “Dump runs.”

We had monthly shopping expeditions to Kroger’s.

A few times a year we expanded our shopping to a longer drive to buy produce at a farmer’s market.

Buying an unfinished home, provided many opportunities to do life together as we contracted several vinyl fences, installed flooring, painted, and built multiple retaining walls.

Do life together, while we sit in our house, walk by the way, lie down, and rise up!

(Deuteronomy 6:7)
