

Pursue Your Kids

Take the Initiative like Jesus did. He pursues us.

“He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God.” (John 1:11–12)

“While we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die— but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.” (Romans 5:6–8)

“Surely your goodness and unfailing love will pursue me all the days of my life.” (Psalm 23:6 NLT)

Ideas

Breakfast at the Diner, Chuck and girls one each week

Lunch at the Diner, one at a time

Daughters, Panera Bread, having nails done

When you decide on a course of action or a particular activity, don't make children nag. Put it on the calendar and follow through. There will always be situations when you have to cancel, but do your best to follow through on your commitments. Beware of broken promises, make a plan, and stick to it.

“Keep their promises even when it hurts.” (Psalm 15:4 NLT)
